

KOORI INTEGRATED FAMILY SERVICES CASEWORKER – Identified position

Gunditjmara Aboriginal Cooperative is in an exciting phase of growth. Our passionate teams provide a range of quality holistic community health and social support programs principally to the Aboriginal community as well as other residents in Warrnambool, South West Victoria and outlying areas.

About the Opportunity

Passionate about the wellbeing of Koori families? The Koori Integrated Family Services Caseworker provides intensive, long and short term case work and direct support to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families with complex needs that are in contact with or at risk of contact with Child Protection Services. In this role you can expect to be providing culturally appropriate parenting support, mentoring, advocacy and guidance and working holistically to achieve positive outcomes for families and community. Mentoring, support and guidance provided. Full-time position.

What we are Looking for

- Experience in related areas of work
- Solid understanding of issues confronting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities
- Relevant qualification or significant work experience and training

The Koori IFS Caseworker is an Indigenous Identified role only open to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples. The filling of this position is intended to constitute a special measure under section 8(1) of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cth), and s12 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (Vic).

The Benefits

Salary range is $55,000 to $58,000 p.a., depending on experience and qualifications. A salary package with attractive salary sacrificing benefits (salary sacrifice your home loan, car loan, superannuation etc.) is on offer plus additional paid leave over Christmas / New Year. Warrnambool offers low cost living and affordable housing and is a well serviced regional hub of South West Victoria. We are surrounded by stunning coast line, lush countryside and bushwalking tracks.
