

REGIONAL FAMILY VIOLENCE CASEWORKER

Gunditjmara Aboriginal Cooperative is in an exciting phase of growth. Our passionate teams provide a range of quality holistic community health and social support programs principally to the Aboriginal community as well as other residents in Warrnambool, South West Victoria and outlying areas.

About the Opportunity

Passionate about the wellbeing of Koori families? The Regional Family Violence Caseworker role provides culturally safe support to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women and children living in South West Victoria affected by family violence. Mentoring, support and guidance provided. Full-time position, Level 2 classification under the SCHADS award 2010.

What we are Looking for

- Experience working in the family violence sector
- Understanding of the inter-generational impact of family violence within Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities
- Relevant qualification or significant work experience and training

We strongly encourage Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to apply.

The Benefits

Salary range is from $48,530 to $54,130 p.a., depending on experience and qualifications. A salary package with attractive salary sacrificing benefits (salary sacrifice your home loan, car loan, superannuation etc.) is on offer plus additional paid leave over Christmas / New Year. Warrnambool offers low cost living and affordable housing and is a well serviced regional hub of South West Victoria. We are surrounded by stunning coast line, lush countryside and bushwalking tracks.

How to Apply

Specific queries about this role should be directed to Ashley Couzens, Manager Community Services, 03 5559 1234, ashley.couzens@gunditjmara.org.au. Enquiries and applications to Susan Kay, susan.kay@gunditjmara.org.au. Applications must include a covering letter, resume, 2 referees and how you meet the essential criteria. Application deadline Sunday 4 March 2018.